POSSESSION BEATS MONSOON.

REQUITAL FILLY WINS THE DIS-TAFF STAKES.

Bon Mot Takes the Handleap From Himself by a Nose-Steeplechase for Walter Cleary-Three Favorites and Two Secend Cheices in Front at Brighton.

Mud horses were in their element, at Brighton Beach yesterday, where the rain during the night had made the track fetlockdeep in sloppy going. In spite of the threatening weather, 8,000 persons made the trip and saw some tolerably good sport, which produced three successful favorites and two second choices.

The Distaff Stakes, for two-year-old fillies. at five furlongs, was the leading feature, but the withdrawal of August Belmont's Beldame caused considerable disappointment. Pierre Lorillard's The Lady Rohesia was also scratched, but there were four added starters—C. Oxx's Possession, W. B. Jennings's Memoriam, Foxhall Keene's Cyprienne and J. L. McGinnis's Glad Smile.
The talent made R. W. Walden's Monsoon the favorite, because of her superior class but the price went up to 8 to 5, as Possession, was backed down to 3 to 1. It was anymoriam. Cyprienne and Monsoon having succeeded one another in showing in front, Then Monsoon drew away a trifle, Redfern. however, going to the whip as the Albert filly was faltering. At the last furlong pole Bullman came up with Possession, who had started slowly but had made up the lost ground with a remarkable turn of speed. and in a drive she defeated Monsoon by three parts of a length in 1:02 1-5. H. M. Ziegler's semitic, 6 to 1, five lengths back, beat Memoriam a short head.

The most exciting finish of the day occurred in the handicap at a mile and a furiong. Bon Mot was the choice at twos. Andy Williams and Himself were both backed down to 5 to 2 and 9 to 2, respectively. There was a delay at the post caused by the unruly behavior of Bon Mot and Andy Williams, but when the barrier was raised all wore away fairly-Daisy Green led to the lower turn, where Creamer was carried to the front by Himself. Creamer was carried to the front by Himself. The Daly horse was at home in the mud and going up the back stretch he opened up a sap of haif a dozen lengths. Dalsy Green stopped at the haif mile while the Hampton Stable's Setauket, ridden by a stable bov went after Himself with plenty of speed Meanwhile Bon Mot and his rider, Gannon, both covered with mud, were hustling along in third place. At the turn Bon Mot had passed Setauket and was overhauling Himself with every stride. As they straightened out for home Himself still had a couple of lengths to spare, but Creamer went to the whip as the favorite was going great guns. Gannon drew his whip, too, and opposite the betting ring Himself's advantage was reduced to a half a length. Inch by inch the favorite gained until in the very last jump he got his nose in front and won amid in ease excitement. Setauket, eight lengths beand, took third money by a length and a half from Andy Williams, who had no speed and ran a very poor race. The time was 1355 2-5.

The first race was cut to pieces. It was for two-year-olds at six furlongs, with Julius

The first race was cut to pieces. It was for two-year-olds at six furlongs, with Julius Fleischmann's Tomcod an odds-on favorite at 7 to 10. He made the running to the last furlong pole, where he hung, and Larson, moving up with a neat ride on H. T. Meyer's Sailor Knot, second choice, won by half a length in 1:15 3-5. Sir Walt, 6 to 1, was six lengths back.

Sailor Knot, second choice, won by half a length in 1:153-5. Sir Walt, 6 to 1, was six lengths back.

Although there were ten starters in the seiling steeplechase at about two miles, J. W. Colt's Walter Cleary and T. Hitchcock Jr.'s Tankard monopolized the attention of the smart people, the former being backed down to 4 to 5 favorite and the latter going up a point to fours. The race was a long duel between them. They ran like a team for a mile and a half, where Tankard had enough, and the favorite proceeded to win in a big gallop by fifteen lengths, with Tankard the same distance in front of Lord Radnor, 30 to 1. Gold Ray and Your Grace fell together at the first jump in the backstretch, while Gasgar tumbled in the mud in the run home on the flat and gave Tenner a bath that made the crowd roar with laughter Jocke's who had never ridden a winner had the mount in the fifth event, for platers at a mile and a sixteenth. Flara figured best and was a hot favorite at 6 to 5, but when the gate went up she wheeled and was left standing stock still. Anklet, 20 to 1, ridden by Scott, a colored boy, made a runaway of it. She led all the way and won by a length and a half. The Regent was second home, a head better than Carroll D., who was backed down to 9 to 2 and with a good boy up could not have lost. As it was, Racine, who handled the Daly colt, had him all over the track and when he went to the whip at the last not have lost. As it was, Racine, who handled the Daly colt, had him all over the track and when he went to the whip at the last sixteenth almost fell out of the saddle. The time was 1:52.

R. W. Walden's Tristesse, 7 to 5 favorite, was easy money in the concluding event, for maiden three-year-old fillies at six furlongs for she stood the others on their heads and won in a gallop by two lengths in 1:18 4-5. Albany Girl, second choice, took the place without overexertion, having five lengths over Fred Gebhard's Nuit Blanche, 25 to 1. FIRST RACE.

Cricket Note.

The Elizabeth boys of the Union County Cricket Club scored a victory at Mount Ver-non on Saturday last, when they won by a score of 85 to 18 against the St. George's Cricket Club of Mount Vernon. The bowling of D. A. Gibson and E. F. Goddard of the Unions was very commendable.

BRIGHTON TURF GOSSIP. Golden Maxim Thrown Out of Trainin Temporarily.

Golden Maxim, the crack three-year-old who finished second to Africander in the Realization and who won the Islip Handicap from Roehampton at Brighton on Saturday, will probably not be seen in a race for some time to come. After the race on Saturday it was discovered that the colt had wrenched nimself and yesterday it was said that he was suffering from fever. Those who were in close touch with the stable said that the accident was not serious and that the Golden Garter colt, with proper care, would soon be maintained that the injury was of such a nature that Golden Maxim might never race again. J. P. Kraner, his owner, recently refused $20,000 for the colt, the offer being made, it is said, by E. R. Thomas. The colt has many valuable engagements yet to fill and in the Islip he was at his best. The selling-race war broke out again yesterday. Sailor Knot, who was taken away from the Fleischmanns some time ago and who beat the latter's colt. Tomcod, in the first race, was bid up to $1,500 by H. M. Mason, trainer of the Mexican Stable. This was done in retaliation for the bidding up of Cameron about two months ago to $4,000 by H.R.Schaffer, who, Mason believed, was in partnership with H. T. Meyer, the owner of Sailor Knot. When there was no response from Meyer after Mason's $1,500 bid, Mike Clancy raised the figures to $1,550 and got the colt, afterward

Mason's $1,500 bid, Mike Clancy raised the figures to $1,550 and got the colt, afterward selling him back to Meyer for $1,750. In the fifth race Anklet, who was entered at $500, was bid up to $700 and bought by J. Baker, owner of The Regent, the second horse.

Coming down the stretch in the Distaff Stakes, Possession, the winner, appeared to savage Monsoon. As a matter of fact Redfern, who rode the Walden filly, struck Possession over the nose twice with his whip and would probably have been disqualified for fouling if Monsoon had finished in front.

Jockey Fuller was on the sick list yesterday and could not ride.

When Larson was thrown from Articulate in the Brighton Handicap the fact was wired all over the country. The boy's sister, who had lost track of him several years ago, telegraphed to the Brighton officials asking if Larson could be her brother, and the jockey instantly communicated with her. They are orphans and when Larson came East in the employ of the Whitney stable his sister knew nothing of his profession. He remained in obscurity until he began to ride for Bob Smith, and meanwhile he did not know what had become of his sister. Larson's accident, therefore, may be said to have been productive of good results.

Matt kyrnes, the well-known trainer, who is handling horses in Hungary, has written to a friend here that he has just won a big stake race for a nobleman and is having great success in his new line of work.

In the fifth race J. Kimball, the apprentice who rode Postmaster Balley, never sat in the saddle a moment from the time he left the post until he passed the judges. He stood straight up in the stirrups and looked as if he was sorry that he had taken the chance.

Lida Leib, the full sister to Bankstar, was a starter in the Distaff Stakes, but she ran last.

There was a heavy play on Effe Sheppard

JOCKEY MAHER BETTER. Passes a Fair Night and Is Thought to Be

Out of Danger. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, July 13.—Danny Maher, the American jockey, who was injured in an automobile accident last Friday, and who is being cared for at the Caterham Cottage Hospital, passed a fair night.

HARTFORD, Conn., July 13.—The parents of Danny Maher, the Hartford Jockey, who was in an automobile accident in England on Friday, last night cabled to Sam Lavery, Maher's valet, for information. The reply was: "Danny is better and resting comfortably, no danger." was: "Danny is better and resting comfortably; no danger."

Mrs. Maher had made arrangements to sail for England on Wednesday, but in view of the good news will postpone the trip unless unfavorable reports should be received. Mr. and Mrs. Maher have implicit confidence in their son's valet. They await, however, rather anxiously, further information as to the accident.

At Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 13.—More misfortune overtook John Drake to-day when his fast sprinter Runnells met defeat in the second race at Washington Park, in which he was an odds-on favorite, losing to N. H. Tichenor & Co. Se Elsie L. Owner Drake and his friends backed Runnells heavily at 3 to 5, and although he was apparently the best horse he lost the contest at the wire. It was the general opinion that the ride by Jockey Gray caused the defeat of the favorite. Helgerson put up one of his best efforts on Elsie L. and the filly lasted just long enough to beat Runnells by a head.

First Race—Six furlongs—Nannie Hodge, 103 (L. Wilson), 7 to 2, won; Aggie Lewis, 103 (Helgerson), 9 to 5, second; Rainland, 103 (Henry), 9 to 1, third. Time, 1:14 3-5. Soldier of Fortune, General Steward, My Ester, Sauerkraut, Banwell, Mingore and Frank Carr also ran.

Second Race—Six and a half furlongs—Elsie L. 97 (Helgerson), 5 to 1, won; Runnells, 112 (C. Gray), 3 to 5, second; Golden Rule, 116 (Dominick), 11 to 2, third. Time, 1:19 3-5. Ahela and The Crisis also ran.

Third Race—One mile—Bad News, 112 (Davis)

At St. Louis.

St. Louis, July 13.—Four favorites and two heavily played second choices won all the races to-day. Three horses started in the feature event which was won by the second choice, Bas d'Or, handily from the outsider, while Maud Gonne, the odds-on choice, finished a poor last.

First Race—Four and a half furlongs—Ingol-thrift, 110 (Bell), 61 to 5, won; Buster, 107 (Fauntieroy), 25 to 1, second; Dusty Miller, 110 (Kelly), 25 to 1, third, Time, 0:57. Ad. Smith, Tom Rowe, Port Warden, Lamont, Glenesher, Fenlan and Potter also ran.

Second Race—Six furlongs—Dolly Gray, 98 (D. Austin), 5 to 2, won; Mistle, 95 (Howell), 8 to 1, second; Kitty Cut a Dash, 95 (Shea), 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:10-2. Cressida, Emma Meyer, Lou Beach, Blue Grass Girl, Mint Leaf, Dolly Hayman, Lelia May, Lady Charlot and Mighoni also ran.

Third Race—Five and a half furlongs—Forehand, 108 (Higglins), 7 to 5, won; Major Felham, 115 (Dale), 4 to 1, second; Jehane, 105 (H. Booker), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:093. Wigwam, Lecent, Bride, Council, and Orient also ran.

Fourth Race—One mile and 70 yards—Bas d'Or, 100 (Higglins), 5 to 2, won; Taby Tosa, 107 (Fauntieroy), 7 to 2, second; Maud Gonne, 105 (H. Booker), 4 to 5, third. Time, 1:095.

Fifth Race—Seven furlongs—Miss Mae Day, 107 (Smith), 0 to 10, won; Bengal, 106 (Hall), 3 to 1, second; Orleans, 101 (Earle), 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:2942, Miss Gollghdy, Quickillver Sue, Nabock-lish, Jimalong, Doeskin and Duela also ran.

Sixth Race—One mile and a sixteenth—Orpheum, 88 (Howell), 3 to 2, won; Montana Peeress, 96 (Shea), 18 to 5, second; Murmur, 97 (D. Austin), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:200.

The good base running of George Smith, based on quickness of wit in seizing an oppor-tunity offered by lack of watchfulness by the other side, and the sprinting prowess of Bill Donovan won for the Detroits yesterday at American League Park. The Detroits scored a winning run in the seventh inning, and the man who made it did not get to first until two were out. It was Smith who made the victorious and heady march around the second. Donovan hit to Conroy and, being very fast, beat the ball to first. Smith circled around third at top speed on Donovan's hit and, seeing that neither Ganzel nor O'Connor was paying any attention to him, kept on for the plate. When Ganzel and O'Connor woke up Smith was across the rubber.

The New Yorks had men on third and second and nobody out in the third inning, but Fuitz was fooled into striking out by one of Donovan's fast, uncanny drops, Williams hoisted a foul fly on high, which gravitation brought to McGuire, and McFarland succumbed to Donovan's wiles. In the fifth, just as in the to McGuire, and McFarland succument to Donovan's wiles. In the fifth, just as in the third, Chesbro hit safely and Keeler bunted safely. Fultz drew four balls, Chesbro scored on Williams's fly to centre, McFarland struck out, Keeler scored on a wild throw to second by McGuire and Couroy's single sent Fultz home. The Detroits scored thrice in the sixth on Smith's scratchy single, Donovan's bunt, which tangled up the New York infield: Barrett's sacrifice, Long's fly to Fultz, Crawford's triple to the right-field fence and Carr's ripper to centre.

Green, Conroy and Fultz fielded exceedingly well. Conroy also growled at the umpire on a decision at first and asked him "where his leather specs were at." In the ninth inning "Lefty" Davis was out on a third strike that split the plate, and went to the beach grumbling just as though he were not wholly to blame. In the fifth inning Carr, the Detroit first baseman, got something in his eye to his evident discomfort. Naturally, he could not catch thrown balls in that condition. There was a slight delay while the eye was being attended to, and some onlooker cut in with "Hey, I'll flx it." Whereupon Donovan called the speaker a "big fathead."

Reliance in Dry Dock.

The work of cleaning the Reliance, which is dry-docked in the Eric Basin, was pushed along yesterday, and the new defender will along yesterday, and the new defender will be launched this morning, in fine fettle for the races to be sailed during the cruise of the New York Yacht Club. Her underbody was not very foul and there was no very great necessity of having her cleaned, but Mr. Iselin wants the yacht kept in the best possible condition, and so keep up the good record she has made during the season.

The yacht's tender, Sunbeam, is also docked in the same basin. She is having a new propeller put on. The old one had been badly damaged.

The Reliance will be floated this morning and towed to New Rochelle.

NATIONAL LEAGUE GAMES. | TROUBLES OF AUTO CUP RACE

FIRST EYE WITNESS BACK SAYS GASOLENE CAUSED DEFEAT.

Charles B. Shanks a Friend of Winton and Owen States That Americans Could Only Get Russian Gasolene for Cars -Paramn Stopped Up the Vaives.

Charles B. Shanks, the first to return of the American party that went to Ireland in quest of the international automobile cup. arrived here on the Etruria on Saturday night. Yesterday in response to inquiries, he gave out a long statement of the cup race from the Winton viewpoint, which affords a novel reason for the failure of Winton and Owen to finish in the race. The story told by Mr. Shanks is an interesting one, but it should be mentioned that Mr. Shanks is prominently connected with the company that makes the Winton cars used by Owen and Winton. Mr. Shanks says:
"Bad Russian gasolene was responsible for the poor showing made by the Americans in the race. Neither Winton nor Owen had a single accident during the race due either to the machinery of their cars or their handling of them. A defective quality of gasolene was solely responsible for all the mishaps which they encountered. The best grade of gasolene obtainable for the trials was 63 degrees. The worst that can be bought in the United States is 68 degrees.

"Two days before the race we heard that the French and German contestants had brought with them supplies of gasolene of excellent quality, such as they had been accustomed to use in Continental races. We also learned that the English competitors had a special brand of petrol, so that it was evident to us, even before the race, that our competitors had been forewarned as to the character of gasolene to be obtained on the spot. That was a heavy handicap.

"Next day I found a dealer in Newbridge, fourteen miles from Timolin, who had a stock of Russian gasolene on hand. I tested it myself by a hydrometer and found it registered 72, so therefore felt very confident that this part of our trouble was over. I arranged for its transportation to Timolin, where it arrived at 9:30 o'clock on the eve of the race. On the morning of the race the two Winton cars left Timolin at half past 5 o'clock, bound for the starting point.

"By the time Mr. Winton was called to the tape he had already discovered that something had gone wrong with his machine. A careful scrutiny of every part of the motor falled to disclose the slightest cause for the obstinacy. Feeling sonident that it was not the gasolene, since we had already overcome that difficulty, as we supposed, the last place to look for the trouble was in the carburctor. But even here everything was in good condition. Then the inlet valve nipple, through which the fluid passes from the supply tank to the carburctor, was examined. By blowing through this we found it was stopped up, Here was the trouble. A wire probe forced the passage and dislodged a solid deposit of para ouretor the paramne separated and collected in the inlet valve nipple. The feed to the carburetor was completely cut off as a consequence.

"At the time for his departure, 8:10 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Winton was working with the cantankerous motor. Forty minutes later when the trouble had been located and temporarily remedied and the carburetor reattached to the motor, Mr. Winton drove up to the starting point and was off and away. Half way round the first circuit, however, the motor evidenced the same obstinate tendencies as were experienced at the starting tape; the remedy must be effected as before and the process consumed many minutes. Over and over again it was the same story. All day long until late in the afternoon when the winners had passed the finishing wire and the race was declared over the two Wintons battled with this heretofore unencountered paraffine evil. This is a phase of automobiling which has never been encountered in this country with American gasolene; we never look for paraffine because we know it is not there, and we did not expect it as a source of possible difficulty in Ireland. Mr. Owen's experiences were the same as Mr. Winton's.

"Late in the afternoon when the Winton cars had covered little more than two-thirds of the complete course of 370 miles, the order came to stop. The race was over, and all contestants were instructed to leave the course. Five cars had crossed the finishing line, our two cars were on the road, and the five other cars of the twelve starters had fallen by the wayside. The Winton cars had therefore the unique distinction of being the only contestants ordered to stop running. Had it not been for this confounded paraffine, they would have stopped running of their own accord, but only after passing the finishing wire in the winning class. Of that I am associately confident, and I may say that every one who saw the performance of the ears thought and said so too."

Jack Herman's Trial Postponed

BUFFALO, July 13 .- The tri al of Jack Her-

BUFFALO, July 13.—The trial of Jack Herman, manager of the International Athletic Club, was to have been started at Fort Erie to-day, but it was postponed u ntil Friday at the request of Herman, who is in Chicago, the is charged with conducting a prizefight. If the new Magistrate, Cruikshank, does not uphold the ruling of his predecessor, Logan, that a boxing match with gloves is not a prizefight, Fort Erie will cease to be a sporting centre.

Young Corbett Matched to Fight Tommy Sullivan. Young Corbett is still making matches, his latest being with Tommy Sullivan of Brooklyn. Yesterday articles of agreement were signed for a ten-round bout to be decided before the West End A. C., St. Louis. They will have it out at catchweights. Sullivan bas a good reputation. Besides being elever and strong, he knows how to punch straight from the shoulder. The impression prevails that Corbett will have to be in trim in order to beat Sullivan.

Races for Power Boats.

The Indian Harbor Yacht Club will hold a regatta for power boats next Saturday afterregatta for power boats next Saturday afternoon. There will be races for all classes according to the classification of the American

Special Cable Despatch to TER SUN. Worcester, July 13.—The tenth match of the tour of the Philadelphian cricketers Workester, July 13.—The tenth match of the tour of the Philadelphian cricketers was begun here to-day on a splendid wicket, which promised a big score to the side winning the toes for choice of innings. As luck would have it, Worcester gained the advantage, and their batsmen, who last week ran up a total of 547 against Hampshire, occupied the wickets for the greater porton of the day, and put on the good total of 388. The visitors missed the bowling of J. B. King, who in this department of the game has proved a tower of strength to them. He is still suffering from the strain to the muscles of his leg sustained in the Warwickshire match, and was unable to play to-day. P. H. Clark and P. N. Le Roy did excellent work with the ball, the former getting 4 wickets for 48 runs and the latter 4 for 62, but not one of the other bowlers obtained any degree of success.

The Worcester men began rapid scoring from the start. Arnold played a capital innings of 88, H. K. Foster hit out vigorously for 55 and Cuffe failed to make a "century" by 9 runs. Gaukrodger also played good cricket for 49, while eight of the eleven got into double figures.

The Philadelphians began their innings badly, for they lost Sharpless, Wood, Bohlen and Brown, with only 15 runs on the board. H. A. Haines and N. Z. Graves then made a short stand, in which the latter hit hard for 35, while the former played steadily for 18, and when time was called the total had advanced to 71 for 6 wickets. The game will be resumed in the morning.

Amateurs in the Western Open-Kenesha Caddles Licensed.

H. Chandler Egan and Walter Egan are the only amateurs of the dozen entered in the Western open championship who are known in the East. They should make a good accounting, for both are now playing very well. Walter won the second-flight oup on Saturday in the open tournament of the Midlothian Country Club, beating George Clingman, Jr., in the final, by 2 up and 1 to play. The first-flight cup was won by Robert E. Hunter, a sixteen-year-old player of Midlothian. On Saturday, too, the Egans won the thirty-six-hole four-ball foursome at Midlothian, winning gross and net honors with 156, 0-156. The same day Louis N James, the amateur champion, did a 77 at Glen View.

Judge Slosson of the county court in accordance with the labor laws passed at the last session of the Wisconsin Legislature, has decided that the caddies of the Kenosha Country Club must have permits before they can be allowed to carry clubs. A special form of license has been issued for the caddies. No age limit is specified. The custom is new here, and the outcome will be watched with interest. In Scotland the caddles of many towns are licensed, the fees being fixed at different sums for the first-class caddies and the beginners.

The death of Davie Grant, a well-known professional, is reported from North Berwick. While more noted as a coach than a player, Grant had won some good matches, and he was very strong in foursome play. His greatest exploit was the victory he won in partnership with his brother-in-law, Ben Sayers, in a match with the Kirkaldys over St. Andrews and North Berwick in 1891

Next Saturday is monthly handicap day at the Dyker Meadow Golf Club, and a sweep-stake handicap will be held on the following Saturday.

Nelson Taintor on Saturday made the new amateur record for the Hartford Golf Club course of 34, 42-76.

LONG BRANCH, July 13.—In a match game of golf to-day over Hollywood Links, Jack O'Donohue defeated H. A. McAleenan by 1 up in eighteen holes. The prize to the winner was a silver cup.

Rain Prevents Shamrock's Trial. The rain yesterday prevented the Sham-ocks having a trial, and all interested in the challenger were very much disappointed as they want to find out as soon as possible how much she is improved with her increased sail and longer mast. The two racing yachts were towed down to Sandy Hook early in the sail and longer mast. The two racing yacus were towed down to Sandy Hook early in the morning, the Shamrock III. having been floated out of the basin with the high tide. The yachts arrived at their moorings about 11 o'clock. It was raining then, with little prospect of clearing. The challenger had no mainsail bent on, and had it cleared it would have taken a long time to get ready.

Several of the sails of the challenger have been recut, and some new ones will be tried this week. She has now the largest club-topsail spars ever used on a pe-footer, and if the weather is moderate this week the big club topsail will be tried.

Yachtsmen have been commenting on the fact that the Shamrock I was not cleaned this time. She is a bronze bout and keeps much cleaner than the challenger, but Mr. Fife wanted to keep that yacht in the same trim, if possible, as when she tirst tried against the Shamrock III., and thus be able to see if the increased sail sprend and lighter mast on the new yacht have improved her very much.

The yachts will be out sailing to-day if the weather is fine, and, as usual, they will be sent over the regular Cup course.
